

BEFORE THE IDAHO STATE ATHLETIC COMMISSION

In re:

WORLD COMBAT SANCTIONING
FEDERATION, LLC, (WCSF),

Respondent.

Case No. ATC-2008-2

ORDER

THIS MATTER is before the Commission for the purpose of reviewing the WCSF's compliance with the terms and conditions of the Commission's Order, dated October 10, 2008.

The Commission's Order dated October 10, 2008, placed the WCSF on a six-month probation beginning on October 10, 2008, and lasting until April 10, 2009. As a term and condition of probation, the WCSF is required to provide the Commission with notice of and full access to all WCSF sanctioned events at least one (1) week in advance of the event. In the notice the WCSF is required to provide: (1) the time and place of weigh-ins; (2) the medical doctor's name; (3) the ring official's names; and (4) the fight card.

On October 29, 2008, the Commission received notice that WCSF intended to sanction an event on October 30, 2008, one (1) day before the event was scheduled. Despite the extremely short notice, the Commission allowed WCSF to sanction the event as scheduled. Additionally, on November 19, 2008, the Commission received notice of two (2) events that WCSF intended to sanction. The first event was scheduled for November 20, 2008, two (2) days after notice was received by the Commission. The second event was scheduled for November 22, 2008, four (4) days after notice was received by the Commission. The Commission again allowed

FINAL ORDER - 1.

WCSF to sanction these events as scheduled; however, WCSF representatives were reminded of the terms of their probation, and further informed that the Commission would not longer entertain any requests for exceptions to the notice requirements. Thereafter, on April 9, 2009, the Commission received notice that WCSF intended to sanction an event on April 11, 2009, two (2) days after notice was received by the Commission.

The Commission, having conducted an independent review of WCSF's compliance with the Commission's Order, dated October 10, 2008, and good cause appearing therefor, the Commission adopted the following Order.

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED as follows:

1. The Commission's Order dated October 10, 2008, is incorporated herein by this reference.

2. That Respondent's actions in it's repeated failure to timely notify the Commission of events that WCSF intends to sanction, constitute a violation of the terms and conditions of WCSF's probation, as outlined in the Commission's Order dated October 10, 2008.

3. For the reasons set forth in this Order, the terms of the Commission's Order dated October 10, 2008, including "WCSF's probation," shall be extended for the period of three (3) months from the date of this Order.

4 Any party may file a Petition for Reconsideration of this Final Order within fourteen (14) days of the service date of this Final Order. The Commission will dispose of the Petition for Reconsideration within twenty-one (21) days of its receipt, or the Petition will be considered denied by the operation of law. (See, Idaho Code Section 67-5247(4)).

a. Pursuant to Idaho Code Sections 67-5270 and 57-5272, any party aggrieved by this Final Order, or orders previously issued in this case, may appeal this Final Order and all previously issued orders in this case to district court by filing a petition in the district court of the county in which: (i) a hearing was held; (ii) the final agency action was taken; or (iii) the party seeking review of this Final Order resides.

b. An appeal must be taken within twenty-eight (28) days: (i) of the service date of this Final Order; (ii) of any order denying petition for reconsideration; or (iii) of the failure within twenty-one (21) days to grant or deny a petition for reconsideration, whichever is later. (See, Idaho Code Section 67-5273.) The filing of an appeal to district court does not itself stay the effectiveness or enforcement of the order under appeal.

5 The Bureau Chief of the Bureau of Occupational Licenses shall cause a true and correct copy of this Final Order to be served upon the Respondent and the State's attorney by mailing a copy to them at their addresses as provided.

DATED this 10th day of April, 2009.
